🏨 Austin, Texas: STR Tax Quick Reference

Hotel Occupancy Tax (HOT) Essentials for Short-Term Rentals

📊 Tax Rate Breakdown

Authority	Rate
Texas State HOT	6%
Austin Local HOT	11%
Combined Total	17%

💰 What is Taxable?

The tax applies to the total price of the stay, including:

- Nightly rates
- Cleaning fees
- Pet fees
- Any other stay-related charges

> Calculation Example: If your booking is $200 per night plus a $100 cleaning fee, your taxable total is $300.
>
> - State Tax (6%): $18
> - City Tax (11%): $33
> - Total Tax Due: $51

🗂 Compliance & Filing

Your responsibilities change depending on how you book your guests:

Using Airbnb or Vrbo

- Collection: Platforms usually collect both state and local taxes.
- Remittance: Platforms usually remit these taxes on your behalf.
- Note: You are still legally responsible for overall compliance.

Direct Bookings

If you book outside of major platforms, you must:

- Register with the Texas Comptroller and the City of Austin.
- Collect and file all taxes yourself.
- State Filing: Monthly or Quarterly.

- City Filing: Typically Quarterly.

⚠ Common Pitfalls to Avoid

- The "Hands-Off" Trap: Assuming Airbnb/Vrbo handles everything.
- Fee Omissions: Not taxing cleaning fees.
- Poor Tracking: Not tracking payouts or keeping detailed records.

> CORE RULE: Even if platforms collect taxes, YOU are legally responsible for the accuracy and compliance of your tax filings.